

Pride in Ilfracombe winners Sept 09

Name of Nominee	Why they have been nominated	Category area won
1 Sylvia and Roy Prideaux	Sylvia, Roy and the Rockets band continue to raise money for local charities and organisations. They have branched out to include the Help for Heroes charity, They work tirelessly with car boot sales, stalls etc all for good causes.	Positive Influence on Community
2 Nicholas Pedlar	Great supporter of the local community, sat on many committees, organises local events and promotes the town. Panel members referred to him as Mr Ilfracombe!	Long Service
3 Dave Duce	Goes above and beyond with customer service, very polite and attentive. Hugely popular and know as 'Dave From the Co-Op'. His kindness and good service is appreciated by his fellow works and members of the public.	Exception Customer service
4 Bernice Putt	Much appreciated member of the community. Kindness coupled with caring nature makes her an exception Paramedic. Completes many voluntary acts in the community.	Dedicated Carer
5 Alan Pickles	Very good neighbourhood watch co-ordinator for Langleigh Park. Has completed this work for a very long time but is retiring at the end of the Summer	Helping our Environment
6 Pam Norman & Staff	Thought of as a hub of the High street giving consistently high levels of customer service, always cheerful and friendly. Also raise money for local charities	Services to neighbourhood
7 Rose Morris	Has devoted at least 23 years of her life to helping Ilfracombe Sea Cadets and young people. Much of her time has involved helping youngsters to apply for courses to further themselves. A superb role model for the community.	Youth
8 Brian Harris	Volunteers for the Ilfracombe CAB, he is very hardworking and committed to helping people. He works tirelessly often staying late to deal with peoples problems. He also supports other staff from organisations within the Ilfracombe Centre an endless supply of useful information and invaluable advice.	Voluntary Worker

